Now you!

B. Use the models from A and describe yourself to the class. Don't forget to mention:

Height – Weight – Age – Hair – Face – General appearance

You can also talk about your clothes/footwear/accessories and your personality (examples: kind, happy, polite, friendly, funny...).

Suggestion: Alternatively, you can describe one of your classmates and ask the class to guess who you're talking about.

Take a look!A. Read the dialogue.

Kate: Hi, Nathan! My favourite actor is Rowan Atkinson!

You know...Mr. Bean!

Nathan: Tell me a little about him! What does he look like?

Kate: He's tall and thin. He has got big eyes and short straight hair.

Nathan: Has he got a moustache?

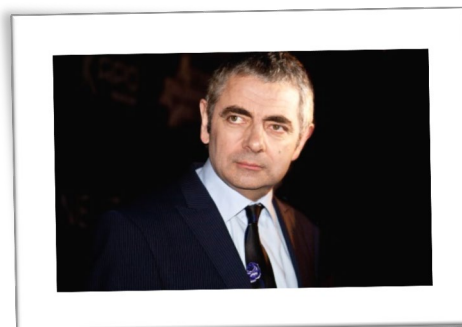

Kate: No, he hasn't.

Nathan: Is he rude?

Kate: Oh, no! He is very friendly and funny.

Nathan: What about his clothes?

Kate: He usually wears a suit, a tie and a white shirt. Look at this photo! That's me asking him for an autograph!

Now you!

B. Student A – Choose one of your favourite actors/actresses; musicians; sportspeople or any other person you admire. Talk with your partner about him/her.

Student B – Ask questions about your partner's favourite person.

Take turns.

Replace the underlined expressions from A with your information and role-play a similar dialogue.

You can write the dialogue in your notebook first.
