I'm crazy about the place where I study, Los Angeles High School. It's a great school for students that love visual and performing arts, like drama, dance and music. My dream is to be an actor, so this school is perfect because you learn lots of exciting things with teachers that are also actors, singers and dancers.

Los Angeles High School is a very modern school. There is a gymnasium with many dance rooms, a theatre for 1000 people, an indoor basketball court, a library that is the shape of a cone, and a student's room with lots of lockers for 2000 students. But what I'm really crazy about is the outdoor swimming pool!

I'm also in two clubs, the robotics and recycling club. Some students in my class are more interested in the chess, dance and gardening clubs. I'm not very good at that.

Los Angeles High School is the best school to bring out the artist in you!
