Take a look!

A. Read the text about Skyline City!

15 years ago

The present

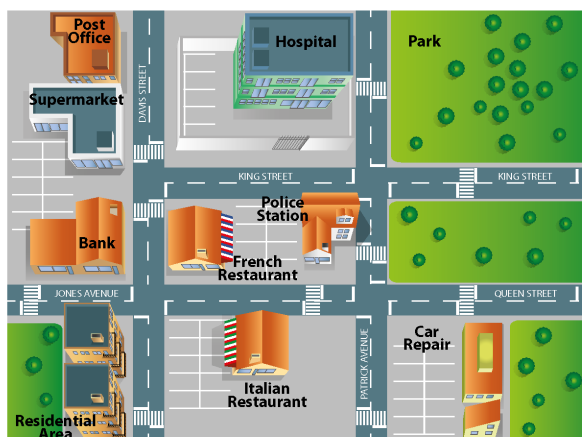

Skyline City was smaller 15 years ago. There were some houses, a museum, the town hall, a small restaurant and a small school.

There wasn't a zoo, a park or a café. There weren't tall buildings and there weren't so many cars in the streets.

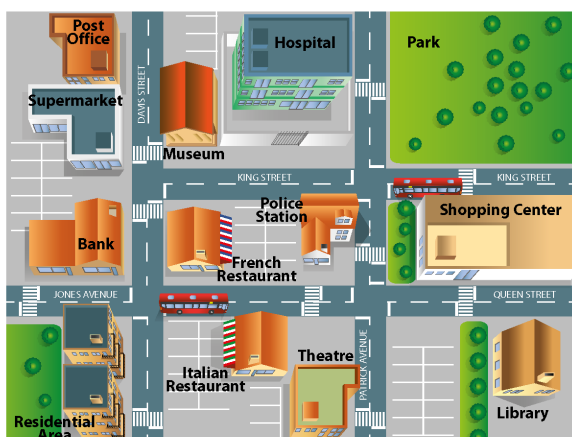

Now you!

B. Look at the pictures of Vanilla City. Tell the class about what there was/wasn't 10 years ago. Use the model from A to help you.

Take a look!

A. Read the dialogue.

Jenna and Jack are talking about last weekend.

Jenna – Hi, Jenny! My last weekend was great. How was yours?

Jack – It was great too. My cousins were here and we watched the last Spider-Man film. We tried different food at the new Chinese restaurant and we walked along the streets. And you?

Jenna – Well, Martha was at my house. We walked Chase, my dog, and we visited the museum. Later we walked in the park.

Jack – We should meet next weekend and do something fun too. What do you think?

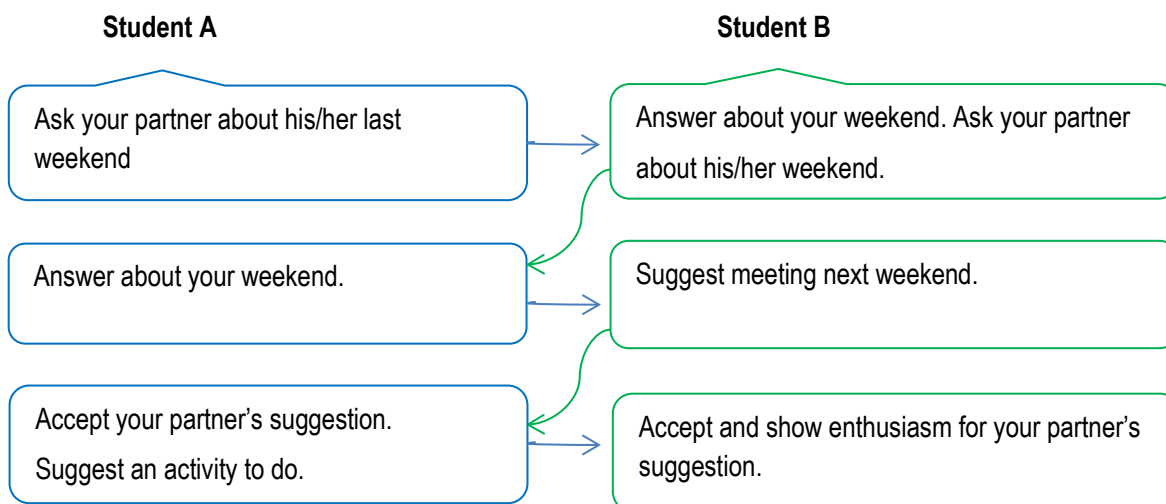

Jenna – Yes, good idea! We can go to the stadium and watch a football match!

Jack – Wow! That's it!

Now you!

B. Think about your last weekend. Use the guide below and the model from A. Role-play a dialogue with your partner.

Note: use the vocabulary from page 76 of your students' book – Things to do in the city
