

Scripts1.*Beatrice: Hi, Martin. How are you? I know you are at another school now.Martin: Hi, Beatrice. Yes, I go to Pleasantville Academy now.Beatrice: And do you like your new school?Martin: It's got good and bad things. I don't like going to the countryside every day, but I really like all the school clubs I can go to.Beatrice: I don't know Pleasantville Academy. Is it a big school?Martin: No, it isn't. It's quite small, but very modern. It's cosy and it has lots of nice facilities.Beatrice: That's nice! Oh dear, it's late! I have to go because I have a ballet lesson at a quarter to four and I still have to get dressed.Martin: It's only ten past three, so you have some time.Beatrice: I have to go, Martin. Do you want to hang out tomorrow?Martin: OK, I can meet you at your place. When are you free?Beatrice: I have piano practice in the afternoon, but we can play chess in the evening.Martin: Oh, I just remembered! I can't go because I have a maths test the next day, so I have to study. Sorry!2.*Martin: Hello! You're new at this school, right?Jennifer: Yes, I am. My name is Jennifer.Martin: Nice to meet you, Jennifer. I'm new too. My name is Martin. I'm feeling a bit lost. Do you want to have lunch with me?Jennifer: In the canteen? OK! I usually have lunch at home, but today I need to have lunch at school because we have an extra activity at the drama club.Martin: That's great. I can't wait! What time is it?Jennifer: It's half past eleven. I have an English lesson in ten minutes, but we can meet here after that.Martin: Is English your favourite subject?Jennifer: No, my favourite subject is maths.Martin: I'm good at maths, but it's not my favourite.Jennifer: I understand. I don't really like geography, but I am good at it.Martin: Well, I am not very good at geography, so I have to study hard.Jennifer: I'm bad at history. It's hard to remember all the dates!
