READING COMPREHENSION AND USE OF LANGUAGE

NICO

CREDIT: AP

Nico Erik Rosberg was born on 27th June 1985, in Germany. He was a Formula One racing driver and drove for Williams F1 and Mercedes AMG Petronas under the German flag.

He spent much of his youth in Monaco with his family, and he lives there now, with his wife and two daughters. He married his childhood friend and long-time fiancée Vivian Sibold in 2014. Their daughter, Alaïa, was born in 2015. Their second daughter, Naila, was born in 2017.

Apart from his native German, he speaks several languages fluently: English, French, Italian and (a little less fluently) Spanish. His father thought these languages would be important for Nico's life and racing career.

He entered Formula One in 2006 with Williams, the team with which his father had won the 1982 championship. After four years with Williams, in 2010, he joined the Mercedes team. He enjoyed his most successful period with Mercedes, winning 23 Grands Prix and earning 30 pole positions. In 2016, he became Formula One World Champion.

He announced that he was going to retire from the sport five days later, on 2nd December 2016, but that he would continue his partnership with Mercedes, as an ambassador.
