Finding a new house

My dad's got a new job, so we're going to move house. Last weekend, my parents, my brother and I went to look at some houses. At the first house, we could hear a lot of traffic noise when we were walking around the garden and you could see the bus station from the patio! Mum didn't like that and she wanted to find a house in a quieter street.

Sam and I loved the enormous bedrooms at the second house, but there wasn't a garage. Dad really wants a garage for his new car, so we aren't going to buy that house.

The third house was in a street where there wasn't very much traffic. It had lovely bedrooms, a big garden, a modern kitchen and, of course, Dad's favourite place was the garage! 'This is perfect!' we were all thinking, but then something happened. We were saying goodbye to the family who lived in the house and there was a noise ... drip, drip, drip. Water was coming through the floor from the bathroom upstairs into the hall where we were standing! We're going to look at more houses next weekend.

Bridget
