Good morning everybody, it's your host Adam here from your local school broadcast Adam's Activities. On today's radio programme, I'd like to talk to you about our new school club which was created by our friendly teacher Mr Marcus, the ICT teacher if you haven't met him yet.

Mr Marcus and some of his students invite you to participate in the News Media Club happening every Wednesday afternoon at 5 p.m. Here you will interview members of the student body every week, write articles for the school newspaper, and update the school's website with current events. In fact, the club is now looking for a communicative person to be a school reporter. Do you think you are up to the challenge?

Well, if you're interested in joining the News Media Club, just meet the rest of the team in the computer room today at half past two for a friendly welcoming meeting. Or, if you can't make it today, simply send an email to Mr Jacob Roberts, the ICT assistant. That's J-A-C-O-B dot Roberts @ news media club.com.

Tune in tomorrow for another episode of Adam's Activities, where we'll be taking a look at the environmental issues in our community...
