

Unit 2 Pairwork

At the travel agent's: Student A

You want to book a hotel room. Student B is your travel agent.

You want a hotel that is ...
good for families near the beach
cheap quiet at night

Ask questions about the three hotels below. Use comparatives and superlatives.

- The Excelsior
- Comfort House
- The Ritzy

Useful phrases:

Is the Excelsior bigger than The Ritzy?
Is Comfort House more expensive than The Ritzy?
Which hotel is the cheapest?
Which hotel is the best for families?

Which hotel do you choose? Why?

At the travel agent's: Student B

You are a travel agent. Answer Student A's questions about these three hotels. Help him / her find the best hotel.

The Excelsior ***
£90 per night	150 rooms
2 km from the beach	2 km from shops / discos
Special prices for families

Comfort House **
£75 per night	20 rooms
300 m from the beach	400 m from shops / discos

The Ritzy *****
£150 per night	200 rooms
400 m from the beach	300 m from shops / discos
Swimming pool, sauna and jacuzzi

Now you are the travel agent. Answer Student B's questions about these three hotels. Help him / her find the best hotel.

The Queen's Hotel ***
£90 per night	20 rooms
100 m from the beach	Next to shops / discos
No children

Mallory Towers *****
£100 per night	150 rooms
300 m from the beach	500 m from shops / discos
Special prices for families

The Shogun *****
£150 per night	350 rooms
2 km from the beach	50 m from shops / discos

You want to book a hotel room. Student A is your travel agent.

You want a hotel that is ...
luxurious near shops and discos
big near the beach

Ask questions about the three hotels below. Use comparatives and superlatives.

- The Queen's Hotel
- Mallory Towers
- The Shogun

Useful phrases:

Is The Queen's Hotel bigger than The Shogun?
Is Mallory Towers more expensive than The Queen's Hotel?
Which hotel is the biggest?
Which hotel is the most luxurious?

Which is the best hotel for you? Why?