

Unit 7 Pairwork

That's news to me!: Student A

- 1 Look at the pages from a newspaper for five minutes. Then answer Student B's questions.

Local News

Boy saved from River

James Taylor (10) from York was recovering yesterday after he fell into the River Ouse. His best friend, Danny Thompson, also ten, jumped into the river to save him. James's mother thanked Danny. 'Without him, my son might have died,' she said.

SPORT: Football

Manchester United played really well last night. Wayne Rooney scored 3 goals in the game against Chelsea. He's still the best player in the English league.

Man Utd 3 Chelsea 0

Liverpool 2 Arsenal 1

Tonight's TV

8.30: The car show

9.00: News and weather from London

9.30: Local news

10.45: Film: Frankenstein!

11.15: The life of plants – wildlife documentary

Celebrity News

Classified ads

Tonight's Radio

- 2 Ask Student B questions to find out the news.

What's the celebrity news headline?

What happened?

What's for sale in the classified adverts?

What's on the radio tonight?

What do you think will be interesting to listen to?

That's news to me!: Student B

- 1 Ask Student A questions to find out the news.

What's the local news headline?

What happened?

What happened in the football?

What's on TV tonight?

What do you think will be interesting to watch?

- 2 Look at the pages from a newspaper for five minutes. Then answer Student A's questions.

Celebrity News: William and Kate – Proud Parents!

The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge are still celebrating after the birth of their baby son. William and Kate have called their baby George. He was born on 22nd July 2013 at 4.30 in the afternoon.

There have been six kings of England called 'George' so far.

Classified ads

For sale. Electric guitar. Nearly new. £120.

Tel 234543

Holiday cottage for rent. Near the sea.
£200 per week.

Is your laptop or computer broken?
We can fix anything! Call 673489

Tonight's Radio

8.00: Music News

9.00: Live rap and hip-hop from New York

10.30: DJ Harry's Hits

11.00: Interview. Behind the music: Kanye West

11.45: Night music

Local News

SPORT: Football

Tonight's TV